

UNDERWRITING

As a public service to the Falmouth Community, FCTV produces the weekly Selectmen Meetings along with bi-annual coverage of Town Meeting.

We welcome and encourage local businesses to support our coverage of these meetings by becoming an underwriter. In appreciation for your donation, we will design a professional underwriting video that is televised during the meetings as well as three times a day, seven days a week on our Honor Roll of Members and Supporters. With over 16,000 cable subscriber homes in Falmouth, what a way to benefit your business while supporting the community!

SENIORNET

SeniorNet is a non-profit organization that teaches older adults how to take advantage of current computer technology and the Internet to enhance their lives. The Learning Center within FCTV's facility is an affiliate of the national SeniorNet program. It is operated entirely by volunteers from our community. The Learning Center makes use of high-quality curriculum materials prepared by specialists at SeniorNet. Fundamentals of Computers for Beginners, Introduction to Microsoft Word, Internet use and Genealogy are just a few of the classes offered on a regular basis.

MASER GALLERY

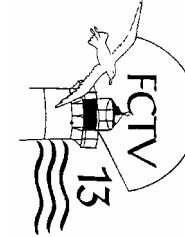

Art by William Adelman

The Maser Gallery at FCTV is dedicated to our first President Morton D. Maser and is open to the public. We support visual arts in our community by hosting a variety of exciting artists from the Upper Cape. With approximately 200 square feet of wall space, exhibits are rotated every four weeks with either individual or group shows. We encourage artists, both emerging and accomplished to submit their artwork.

WHO IS FCTV?

Falmouth Community Television is an independent, non-profit, membership based organization consisting of individuals and groups who live, work, or attend school in Falmouth and includes community groups, area businesses, government entities and other local non-profit organizations.

Established in 1993, FCTV is Falmouth's community media center providing members access to video production training and equipment for the purpose of producing programs for our local channel(s). Members produce programs that express ideas, share information, entertain and encourage participation in community life.

COMMUNITY SERVICES

Community Bulletin Board:

Non-profit and community groups can publicize services, events, and activities.

Conference Room:

A comfortable meeting room for local non-profit and community groups to hold their meetings.

Membership: Open to all who live, work or attend school in Falmouth. Fees are low so everyone in the community can join.

Computer Learning Center:

Offers members and senior citizens access to computer training and resources.

Facility Rental:

Commercial and non-commercial rental of our video production facility and equipment.

Training: Field & studio production classes both live & taped, audio, lighting & directing, linear & non-linear editing.

TRAINING

FCTV offers a variety of hands-on workshops in video production. From beginner through advanced, we will teach you how to create your own television show using our state of the art facility and equipment.

In our 640 sq. ft. studio, learn camera operations, lighting, directing, audio and set design. Learn how to videotape "film style" using a digital camcorder or multi-camera style using our remote control room van or roadcase. Edit tape based linear or use one of our many non-linear computer editing systems. Get involved in town government by operating the four-camera robotic studio-control room at Town Hall.

It's your show, it's your choice, the possibilities are endless!

We offer Basic and Advanced Television Production Classes such as:

- Field Production: Learn how to operate super vhs and digital mini-dv camcorders, our remote control room van or roadcase.
- Studio Production: Hands-on training in studio camera operations, audio, lighting, video switching and directing.
- Editing: Instruction in linear and non-linear (computer) editing including Screenplay, Apple based iMovie, Final Cut Pro and Photoshop.
- Special Workshops and Lectures: Guest trainers and lecturers working in television share their expertise.
